Possible other organizations:

- Giffords.org organization (law firm) campaigning – gun regulation
- Moms Demand Action

We discussed having the bake sale at the all church picnic. Jeli will write up an announcement for the bulletin.

$5,307 was the final total sent to CPOW (Community Place on Washington)

Karin Laszakovits and Paula Burke are both stepping down. Karin is willing to assist if a planning team is formed for 2020.

Kurt DeGoede, Stephanie Kardohley and Austin Gee remain from the prior planning team.

Jordan will reach out to Kurt, Stephanie and Austin, copy Karin, to come up with a new planning team. Seed money in the budget is $2000.

“The Big Idea” - “Building is the launch pad...what is ECOB’s moon shot?”

5th Sunday Forum – Jason said that he does not believe that using Sunday school hour is out of the question, but classes will be ongoing in September and regular Sunday school classes will be happening.

We discussed a possible pizza lunch to have a round table discussion to gather ideas, tie it into the Moon-Shot sermon? Possibly the second weekend in September? We discussed placing an insert in the bulletin the following Sunday, for those who are unable to attend so that they could add their ideas and place in the Witness Mailbox.

Peg O. will check with the Church office about dates available during the month of September, possibly Sunday, September 22nd. OR tie in with the Love Feast on October 6th? Peg will follow up to see what our part of the service project will be for Love Feast. Pastors meet next week to do their annual planning. Greg will run it by the other pastors during their meeting on Tuesday.

Possibly a table at Love Feast for individuals to provide input?

Ask people during service and then post on the board outside of the Sanctuary?

Sending an email or announcement for some ideas prior to Love Feast?

New Windsor SERRV workday is Tuesday, September 24th.

UCEA – Judith Gibble resigned and Dona McDonough has agreed to take over.
